

DAY OF THE CHILD 2015

In 2003, Governor Dirk Kempthorne affirmed his commitment to Idaho's children by signing into law the Day of the Child: Día de los Niños, to be celebrated annually on April 30. Idaho is the first state in the nation to officially give children their own holiday. House Bill 259 was signed by Governor Dirk Kempthorne on March 20, 2003 and became effective July 1, 2003.

Día Del Niño (Children's Day) is celebrated throughout the world to honor children.

A free family fun event including, games, hands-on activities for children and a chance to connect with others and learn about positive family programs.
